LES CENT MEILLEURS POÈMES

AUGUSTE DORCHAIN.

IT would have been difficult to find in France a more competent scholar to make this selection than M. DORCHAIN, himself a poet of standing, poetical critic to the famous French weekly, Les Annales, and author of L'Art des Vers. The taste displayed in the selection of poems for this Anthology will, the publisher believes, cause it to become a standard book at once.

IN order to increase the value of this little volume as an introduction to the works of the great Spanish painter, only pictures which are admitted by that unrivalled authority, Professor Carl Justi, in his book on "Velazquez and His Times," to be genuine, are included. The publishers beg to express their thanks to Mr. Franz Hanfstaengl for the readiness with which he has permitted them to make use of his valuable collection of photographs. Many lovers of Art will no doubt wish to possess larger copies of some of the pictures than those given in this little book, which are necessarily very small. The Publishers beg to refer such readers to pages 65 et seq., for particulars.

Gowans & Gray have commenced the issue of a series of coloured pictures by leading artists, painted specially for themselves, in neat brown paper frames, ready to hang on the wall, at the quite unprecedented price of One Shilling each.

No. 1. is "MY POOR DOG TRAY," by Charles Pears, in which the artist has been eminently successful in rendering the pathetic line from Thomas Campbell's well-known poem, The Harper, "Nor refused my last crumb to his pitiful face."

No. 2. is "APPLE BLOSSOM," by Jessie M. King, in which this remarkable artist's beautiful line is seen at its best.

No. 3. is "THE SCENE OF GRAY'S ELEGY," by Stephen Reid, being a view of Stoke Pogis Churchyard to which the famous elegy refers, painted on the spot by the artist.

These prints can be had through any bookseller or printseller, or direct from the publishers for 1/4 each, post free
